Built on Relationships: First Bristol's Liz Pereira Named 2025 Sales Leader of the Year by Homewood Suites by Hilton brand

Middletown, RI – In hospitality, success isn't just measured in numbers—it's built on relationships.

That philosophy has defined the career of Liz Pereira, Regional Director of Sales for First Bristol Corporation, who has been named 2025 Sales Leader of the Year by Homewood Suites, a brand within Hilton.

Since joining First Bristol in 2012, Pereira has become a driving force behind the success of both the Homewood Suites by Hilton Newport Middletown and the Hampton Inn & Suites Newport Middletown—joint ventures between First Bristol Corporation and Kempenaar Real Estate. Two standout properties in the competitive Newport market.

Her approach is simple, but powerful: build trust, deliver consistently, and create experiences that keep guests coming back.

“What makes Liz exceptional is her consistency and her ability to lead through relationships,” said Adam Asakli, Vice President of Hotel Operations at First Bristol Corporation. “She understands that long-term success in hospitality is built on trust, and this recognition is a direct reflection of that.”

Under Pereira's leadership, both properties have continued to perform at a high level, balancing strong business results with a guest experience rooted in care, responsiveness, and attention to detail.

I'm incredibly grateful to be part of a company that truly values relationships—both within our teams and with our guests,” said Pereira. “This recognition reflects the trust our clients place in us and the consistency our teams deliver every day across both properties.”

That consistency is what defines First Bristol's approach across its portfolio. Success isn't driven by one factor alone, but by the combination of strong properties, engaged teams, and a shared commitment to the guest experience.

At the Homewood Suites by Hilton Newport Middletown, guests are welcomed into a thoughtfully designed, upscale environment, with spacious suites, full kitchens, and amenities that support both comfort and connection. Just minutes away, the Hampton Inn & Suites Newport Middletown offers a modern, reliable stay experience backed by high service standards and consistent guest satisfaction.

Together, the two properties reflect what First Bristol delivers at its best:

The property. The people. The experience.

Pereira's recognition as Sales Leader of the Year is not just an individual achievement - it's a reflection of a broader standard that continues to define First Bristol's presence in the market.
